

Baby ACE & Me

Created and Presented by Bridges for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

Next Session starts October 18, 2017

This early intervention program led by a certified deaf educator is designed to provide language from day one, making communication and family bonding easier and stronger.

Baby ACE & Me* is open to families with children ages birth to three where the parent and/or child is Deaf/deaf.

Each weekly session includes a parent/child interactive exercise, an educational component, and opportunities for parents to build friendships, creating systems of informal support. Helpful resources and toys are made available to families during the course of each Baby ACE & Me session.

Classes are offered free of charge.

Please note, registration is mandatory as space is limited

Our next session of this innovative new program begins on October 18 from 9:00—10:00 am. Sessions will meet on 8 consecutive Wednesdays, except for the Wednesday prior to Thanksgiving Day. The last class is on December 13, 2017

Families who are interested in signing up for upcoming dates or are interested in receiving more information are invited to contact us at:
info@bridgesfordeafandhh.org.

