The Tennessee Performing Arts Center will provide Open Captioning and American Sign Language interpretation at the Sunday, January 27, 2013, 1 p.m. matinee of "Catch Me If You Can," the high-flying, splashy new Broadway musical based on the DreamWorks film and the incredible true story that inspired it. Frank W. Abagnale, Jr., a teenager who runs away from home in search of the glamorous life, with nothing more than his boyish charm, a big imagination, and millions of dollars in forged checks, successfully poses as a pilot, a doctor, and a lawyer, living the high life and winning the girl of his dreams. Don't miss this big-hearted musical adventure based on an astonishing real-life story of being young, in love... and in deep, deep trouble! To purchase discounted tickets in the Open Captioning section that is best for viewing the LED open captioning screen on stage, please go to <http://patron.tpac.org/promo/TPACTICKET>. To purchase discounted tickets in the American Sign Language section that is best for viewing the ASL interpreters on stage, please go to <http://patron.tpac.org/promo/TPACSEATS>. Accessible Services at TPAC include designated parking, elevators, wheelchair seating, use of a TPAC wheelchair, designated restrooms, infrared assisted listening devices, Braille programs and large print programs. In addition, TPAC provides open captioning presented by Theatre Development Fund, American Sign Language, and audio description for hearing and visually impaired patrons at the Sunday matinee of each show in the HCA/TriStar Health Broadway at TPAC Series.
