Visual Communication Interpreting, Inc. is pleased to present:

Personal or Professional: The Ethics Conundrum (presented in ASL with voice interpretation)

This workshop will explore our personal ethics and how these impact our compliance to our professional ethical code. Paula D. Browning will introduce the tenets of the CPC in conjunction with interpreting scenarios in which we might find ourselves. Discussion and questions will help identify which code we are most apt to use in conflicting situations and help blend them in an effective display of ethical professional behavior in our work.

This workshop will be presented via DVD in the VCI classroom. Join your peers and colleagues for a great time, refreshments, and professional dialogue about ethics, ethical situations, and those "it depends" moments.

SPACE IS LIMITED to 20.

$30 covers the cost for CEU's and the workshop.

*Free to VCI employees
