Perspectives on Getting a Cochlear Implant

Title

Perspectives On Getting a Cochlear Implant

(<https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov/library/materials/perspectives-on-getting-a-cochlear-implant>)

The decision to give one's child a cochlear implant is a very difficult one. This video presents differing viewpoints on the topic. A majority of the discussion occurs in casual round-table type conversation between the two parents of a young eighteen month old deaf child, Emily, a deaf mentor who uses

ASL, and a hearing support therapist. The videos culminate with each person providing rationale for their viewpoint and feelings.
