DESCRIPTION

This workshop will be presented in ASL with no voice interpretation. Non-working lunch on your own. .6 CEUs (PS) will be given for this workshop. Lunch options will be available on site, or many options are close by. Refund Policy: No refunds after August 21, 2018

“Blockbuster: Cinematic ASL” -

This workshop examines the parallels between cinematic techniques and ASL grammar conventions such as use of space, depiction, sign modification, and facial effect, and includes some of the most important conventions for conveying meaning through particular camera and editing techniques (as well as some of the specialized vocabulary of film production) to these and other parts of ASL grammar commonly employed by native AL users.

"Space Walk: Proposal for Tracking and Using Depictive Space" -

This workshop introduces the concept of space frames with real world application on how to create and then transition between frames. Participants practice spatial techniques and guidelines to enhance their language use, apply a practical rubric to organize their thoughts and make the best use of their space.
