Architecture Tour with ASL Interpretation

4:30 p.m.

Meet in the Frist Center's Grand Lobby

Free!

Coming downtown to the First Saturday Art Crawl? Then start your evening at the Frist.

"When was the Frist Center built? Who was the architect? Can you tell me about the floors in the galleries?" These are just some of the questions answered in the Frist Center's popular architecture tours. Stroll around the Frist Center as you learn more about our landmark building from one of our always-engaging docents.

Certified American Sign Language interpreters will be available for this tour. No advance reservation is required.

ASL interpretation is generously supported by Bridges, a Nashville-area nonprofit resource for deaf, hard of hearing, and hearing communities. Architecture tours are sponsored by Messer Construction.
