Event Date

Fri, Feb 11 2022, 12:30pm CST - 0 seconds

Presented by: Marianne Huish, M.Ed.

Learning Objectives:

Supporting Children in Extra-Curricular Activities is intended to support parents and caregivers of children who are Deaf/Hard of Hearing as they engage in extra-curricular activities...

- What does the environment look like (is it a dance studio? A soccer field?)
- What are common vocabulary words used in the activity (e.g. soccer: klets, soccer ball, net, goal, positions of team members) and how can I help preteach important words and terms to my child?
- How can I support my child's coach/instructor as they work with my child?

Presenter's Bio:

Marianne Huish is a Teacher of the Deaf in the kindergarten classroom at Sound Beginnings. She earned a master's degree in communication disorders and deaf education at USU, with an emphasis in listening and spoken language. Prior to teaching in the classroom, Annie was a practicum supervisor through USU's endorsement program, where she taught SLPs and Special Educators listening and spoken language strategies used in teaching children who are Deaf/Hard of Hearing. Annie also enjoyed stepping in occasionally at Sound Beginnings in roles that included teaching in the classroom setting. Annie and her husband enjoy raising their three young children in Cache Valley. They love gardening, hiking, swimming, and recently started recreational soccer. When asked what is important in her life, Annie will always say family and teaching are what matter most to her.

This presentation is most relevant to parents of children who are deaf or hard of hearing who use listening and spoken language and the professionals that serve them. All are invited to join us for this discussion.

This webinar will be recorded. Please see the website for access to this and other webinar recordings:
