Organization Description

A national organization of families and professionals committed to education, empowering and supporting parents and families to create opportunities for their children who are deaf and hard of hearing in gaining meaningful and full communication access, particularly through the competent use of sign language in their homes, schools, and communities. ASDC's primary mission is to advocate for the highest quality programs and services for parents in making sound and informed choices to meet their children's educational, communication, personal and social needs so that they may fully participate in the global community of the 21st century. The Endeavor is ASDC's news magazine published four times a year.
