

Helping Parents Communicate Enjoyably and Effectively with Their Child in ASL

This 90-minute program includes 2 parts. Part 1 shows techniques that Deaf parents use with their deaf infants/young children to help them learn and communicate in ASL. Part 2 shows many fun ways to share ASL and Deaf culture with families, including ASL games and family activities.

Author: Hope Publishing

Imprint: North Logan, Utah : HOPE, Inc., c2004

Tags: Parent Resources [1]

Catalog Link: Helping Parents Communicate Enjoyably and Effectively with Their Child in ASL [2]

Source URL:

<https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov/library/materials/helping-parents-communicate-enjoyably-and-effectively-with-their-child-in-asl>

Links:

[1] <https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov/material-tags/parent-resources>

[2] <https://catalog.library.nashville.org/Record/CARL0000427036?searchId=38875658&recordIndex=1&page=1>