

What Do I Do Now?: Communication Skills and Strategies for Individuals Working with Young Children Who Have Sensory Impairments

This is a series of 24 lessons on DVD and a manual especially for paraeducators, teacher's aides, and teachers that features skills and strategies for communicating effectively with young children who have special needs with a focus on children who are sensory impaired. Topics include recognizing and responding to communication signals, building communication into daily routines, interactive turn-taking, active vs. passive communication, choice-making, using calendar systems, encouraging peer interaction, and more. Each topic has a laminated card with lesson tips.

Author: Hope Publishing

Imprint: Logan, Utah : SKI-HI Institute, Department of Communicative Disorders, Utah State University : Distributed by HOPE, Inc., 2004

Tags: Communication Issues/Advice [1]

Teacher Resources [2]

Catalog Link: What Do I Do Now?: Communication Skills and Strategies for Individuals Working with Young Children Who Have Sensory Impairments [3]

Source URL: <https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov/library/materials/what-do-i-do-now-communication-skills-and-strategies-for-individuals-working-with>

Links

[1] <https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov/material-tags/communication-issuesadvice>

[2] <https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov/material-tags/teacher-resources>

[3] <https://catalog.library.nashville.org/Record/CARL0000426950?searchId=38536952&recordIndex=1&page=1>