

Comprehensive Evaluation

Here's help in evaluating every important trait of a child with hearing loss. The entire process is clearly described. Areas covered include psychological and learning assessment, audiological and speech assessment and sign language assessment. A sample start-to-finish assessment shows you the steps to follow when conducting evaluations. Also gives details of how P.L. 94-142 impacts on the evaluation process.

Author: Gallaudet College, Pre-College Programs

Imprint: Washington, D.C. : The College, 2013, 1981

Tags: Teacher Resources [1]

Catalog Link: Comprehensive Evaluation [2]

Source URL: <https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov/library/materials/comprehensive-evaluation>

Links:

[1] <https://tndeaflibrary.nashville.gov/material-tags/teacher-resources>

[2] <https://catalog.library.nashville.org/Record/CARL0000431403?searchId=38534441&recordIndex=1&page=1>