Interpreter Manual [3]

Fee(s): All interpreters are employed through the state and their fees are taken from the individual assignments.

Board: An Act Establishing a Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, 1985 (Massachusetts General Law Chapter 716, Annotated at MGL c.6, __191-199) which mandates the Commission as the principal agency of the Commonwealth to advocate, and coordinate public policies, regulations, and programs, and improve the quality of existing services and promote the development of new services for deaf and hard of hearing citizens.

Qualifications: Educational Interpreter Registration: 1. The individual should join RID. 2. Interpreters and transliterators who are not RID-certified must undergo MCDHH screening; screening is waived for RID-certified interpreters and transliterators. The individual undergoes the interview portion of the interpreter screening process first. 3. If the individual passes the interview portion of the screening, he/she undergoes the performance portion of the screening process. 4. If the individual passes the performance portion of the screening process, he/she will be given an MCD01 contract to sign. He/she will be invited to meet with the Director, Department for Interpreter/CART Services or her/his designee for an informational meeting. 5. Once the contract is executed, he/she will become eligible for job referrals through the Interpreter/CART Referral Service. The individual will also have four years to become nationally certified by RID. 6. If the screened interpreter does NOT become nationally certified in four years, he/she may opt to re-take the performance portion of the MCDHH screening process. If he/she passes, he/she will be granted another four years to become nationally certified. If he/she does not pass, he/she will no longer be eligible to receive job referrals from the Interpreter/CART Referral Service. 7. If the individual is not able to become nationally certified after eight years, his/her MCD01 contract will be rescinded and invalidated.

Special Provisions: Liability coverage is highly encouraged and required under some circumstances
