ASL Sign-Interpreted Performance

Appropriate for families with children of all ages.

Theatrical sign-interpretation is provided through a partnership with Gate Communications. When choosing seats, be aware that sign-interpreters are positioned in front of the stage, house left (which is the right side of seating when looking at the map online). When purchasing tickets online, if you wish to have seats specially-designated for having the best view of both the show and the interpreter, click on the button for Accessible Seating and choose from the following seats: C1, C3, C5, C7, D1, D3, D5, D7, D9, D11, D13, D15, D17, E11, E13, E15, E17, F15, F17 or F19.

As charming as a Victorian Toy Theatre and as romantic as a Viennese Waltz, this sparkling confection brims with humor, magic, and spectacular theatrical effects. All the iconic elements one would hope to see are here; hilarious stepsisters, wise fairy godmother, amazing transformations, delicate pumpkin coach, the ball gown, a handsome Prince, the striking clock, a desperate flight and, of course, a delicate glass slipper left behind in the snow - all lovingly designed, carefully crafted, and beautifully played by the extraordinary artists of Nashville Children's Theatre. This winter, come and warm your hands and heart with NCT's Cinderella.
