This is a workshop specifically designed for families with a child identified with hearing concerns of any age. Everyone in the family and close friends are welcome.

Recreational Programs / Child Care Provided: for ALL children (birth to 13 years) will engage them in exciting recreational activities and supervised by experienced staff while parents, family members, and friends attend sessions designed just for them.

SibShop: Hearing siblings (8 - 13) will attend a special activity designed just for them called SibShop. SibShop is a nationally recognized program that has been provided by TSD Outreach across the state with positive feedback from families and the children attending.

Parent Sessions: will cover a variety topics for children with hearing concerns from birth to high school. Each family attending will receive a free book, The Silent Garden, written by the opening speaker.

Cost: Families can come for free by asking for a scholarship.

Food and lodging: provided on the campus free of charge.

Attached is the Flyer, letter explaining the weekend, and registration form.
