Rochester Institute of Technology is pleased to offer free workshops to parents of 7th-10th grade deaf and hard of hearing students in the Tennessee area. These workshops will provide helpful step-by-step planning tips students can follow through middle school and high school to successfully prepare them for college.

Representatives from RID will cover these topics:

- Identifying the right high school curriculum for college-bound students
- Meeting the English literacy requirements for college admissions
- Starting the college search process
- Financing a college education
- Preparing for standardized admissions testing (PSAT, SAT, ACT)
- How your child can qualify for TIT/NTID's summer programs at no cost
