Description Of Services:

Borderless Arts will be offering a theater camp July 15-18 from 10am-noon at the Sumner Teen Center. The camp will feature theater, music and visual arts. Savannah Kearney and Anna Tison will be leading the camp.

The show is going to be about each student living on their own planet and what their world is like for them. They come to earth to find new friends and run into "the Women in Black." (Inspired by Men in Black the movie starring Will Smith) Everyone works together to help solve an issue. The show concludes with a fun hip hop dance number to the song "Men in Black," or something similar. The students will be able to create their costumes and presentation for their planets during the camp as art projects.

The camp is free, but registration is required. Contact Borderless Arts TN for a registration form. Contact for information about providing accommodations.
