

VIRTUAL - FAMILY LEARNING WEEKEND

Each year, TSD Outreach provides a training opportunity for parents called the Family Learning Weekend. It serves as an opportunity to provide parents various educational activities to help ensure holistic student success. Family Learning Weekends are a free opportunity for parents of deaf and hard of hearing children to come together and learn from professionals.

We hope you can join us for this year's Virtual Family Learning Weekend!

Early Healthy Communication within the Family: Happiness

Jodee coordinates ASL Connect: Families at Gallaudet University as well as coordinating the Deaf Mentor Program in Indiana, where she resides with her family. In addition, she serves as adjunct instructor for Gallaudet's Deaf and Hard of Hearing Infants, Toddlers, and Families: Collaboration and Leadership Interdisciplinary Graduate Certificate Program.

Jodee holds a B.A. in American Studies and an M.A. in School Counseling with Deaf Students, both from Gallaudet University. Jodee then began her professional career as a therapist for a mental-health agency in Indianapolis, where she worked with deaf children and their families.
