5:00 pm EST – 6:00 pm EST

Giuletta Maucere

Giuletta Maucere was raised in a family that can hear rather well. Both her parents and brother are hard of hearing, as well as Giuletta. They were raised culturally Deaf and she attended two Deaf schools growing up.

Giuletta's family are all athletes. She and her brother are currently on the USA team for the Deaflympics. Her brother is on the men's basketball team and she is entering her second year with the women's volleyball team. Giuletta co-teaches elementary Physical Education at Maryland School for the Deaf (MSD), where she has worked for three years. She also is involved in the athletic department as the JV girls volleyball head coach and an assistant coach for varsity girls volleyball and basketball teams.

When asked what she enjoys doing in her spare time, Giuletta says, "I usually train for USA volleyball and I enjoy traveling. However, since the pandemic, hiking and snowboarding have been my go-to hobbies. I also have a newfound hobby with making smoothie bowls!"

Giuletta is looking forward to meeting the participants and discussing Deaf Athleticism!
