Who are Girl Scouts of Middle Tennessee?

We serve volunteers in 39 counties and are a part of Girl Scouts of the USA, the largest girl-serving organization in the world. Girl Scouts provides girls opportunities for social interaction and new experiences. Under the guidance of trained adult volunteers, girls who work toward individual and group goal and develop positive values. Troops are formed according to location, grade level and availability, and they meet regularly in schools, community centers and places of worship.
